

Terms of Use

Acceptance

By using ambientsystems.ai you agree to these terms. If you do not agree, do not use the site.

Template notice: Have qualified counsel review this document before high-traffic production use.

No commercial offer

This site describes our technology and company. Nothing here is an offer to sell software, securities, or professional services unless separately agreed in writing.

Platform boundary

Ambient Systems provides governed data product infrastructure, not investment advice, asset management, or dashboard-only products.

Intellectual property

Site content is owned by Ambient Systems unless otherwise noted. Open-core contracts are under the ambient-core repository license.

Limitation of liability

The site is provided as-is. To the extent permitted by law, Ambient Systems is not liable for indirect damages arising from use of this site.

Governing law

Specify governing jurisdiction with counsel. Ambient Systems Limited (Hong Kong) is the primary corporate entity for this site.
